PARTIES

3. The Petitioner in this action is CHARLES WILLIAMS, (Williams), whose address is 1527 W. State Hwy. 114 Suite, 500-179 Grapevine, Texas 76051.

4. The Respondents in this action are the United States of America, the Internal Revenue Service (hereinafter "IRS") and MIKE THORNTON, Internal Revenue Agent (Thornton).

5. Thornton is the IRS official that issued the alleged summons which is the subject of this controversy. Thornton's mailing address is 5450 Stratum Drive, Suite 150 MC 4222NFTW Fort Worth, Texas 76137.

On or about April 12, 2012, Peoples Bank is scheduled to comply with the IRS summons, surrendering Williams's records to the IRS.

CAUSES OF ACTION AGAINST RESPONDENTS

For the Causes of Action against the Respondents, and each of them, Williams alleges as follows:

I. First Cause of Action Against Respondents

8. The Summons set forth herein above, is in violation of the statutory summons process and should be quashed because IRS failed to give Williams timely notices required by 26 U.S.C., Section 7609(a)(1), i.e., 20 days notice prior to the date set to turn over the records requested. As a consequence Williams was not given the opportunity to timely file a Petition to Quash the Summons pursuant to Section 7609(b)(1).

II. Second Cause of Action Against Respondents

9. The IRS is in violation of the statutory summons process as they failed to provide Williams advance notice that contact with any of these third parties were to be made; and, failed to periodically provide Williams with a record of persons contacted by IRS about Williams as required by Section 7602(c)(1)&(2).

III. Third Cause of Action Against Respondents

10. Williams alleges upon information and belief that the summonses, and each of them, were issued while a referral for criminal prosecution to the Department of Justice is pending, which was made by the IRS in violation of Section 7602(d)(2)(A).

IV. Fourth Cause of Action Against Respondents

11. Because of the violations and abuses of the summonses process as alleged within paragraphs 8 through 10, inclusive, the IRS failed to meet the "GOOD FAITH" requirement of the *Powell*² standard.

V. Fifth Cause of Action Against Respondents

12. Respondents, contrary to law have caused, or will cause, Williams's records to be turned over to Peoples Bank in violation of the Privacy Laws of the United States of America.

VI. Sixth Cause of Action Against Respondents

13. Respondents contrary to law will cause, or has caused, Williams's records to be turned over to the Peoples Bank in violation of the Privacy Laws of the State of Texas Article I, Section 9 and in violation of Williams's United States Constitutionally protected rights under the 4th and 14th Amendment of the U.S. Constitution.

² United States v. Powell, 379 U.S. 48, 85 S.Ct. 248 (1964).

Wherefore, Williams respectfully requests that this Court:

1. QUASH the third party administrative summons of March 12, 2012, to Peoples Bank for the records pertaining to CHARLES WILLIAMS, and;
2. Williams any and all other relief that the Court deems just and prudent, the foregoing considered.

(4) Records. - For purposes of this section, the term records includes books, papers, and other data.

(d) Restriction on examination of records. - No examination of any records required to be produced under a summons as to which notice is required under subsection (a) may be made -

(2) where a proceeding under subsection (b)(2)(A) was begun within the 20-day period referred to in such subsection and the requirements of subsection (b)(2)(B) have been met, except in accordance with an order of the court having jurisdiction of such proceeding or with the consent of the person beginning the proceeding to quash.

(e) Suspension of Statute of Limitations. -

(1) Subsection (b) action. - If any person takes any action as provided in subsection (b) and such person is the person with respect to whose liability the summons is issued (or is the agent, nominee, or other person acting under the direction or control of such person), then the running of any period of limitations under section 6501 (relating to the assessment and collection of tax) or under section 6531 (relating to criminal prosecutions) with respect to such person shall be suspended for the period during which a proceeding, and appeals therein, with respect to the enforcement of such summons is pending.

(A) beginning on the date which is 6 months after the service of such summons, and

(B) ending with the final resolution of such response.

(f) Additional requirements in the case of a John Doe summons. -

Any summons described in subsection (c)(1) which does not identify the person with respect to whose liability the summons is issued may be served only after a court proceeding in which the Secretary establishes that -

(1) the summons relates to the investigation of a particular person or ascertainable group or class of persons,

(2) there is a reasonable basis for believing that such person or group or class of persons may fail or may have failed to comply with any provision of any internal revenue law, and

(3) the information sought to be obtained from the examination of the records or testimony (and the identity of the person or persons with respect to whose liability the summons is issued) is not readily available from other sources.

(g) Special exception for certain summonses. -

A summons is described in this subsection if, upon petition by the Secretary, the court determines, on the basis of the facts and circumstances alleged, that there is reasonable cause to believe the giving of notice may lead to attempts to conceal, destroy, or alter records relevant to the examination, to prevent the communication of information from other persons through intimidation, bribery, or collusion, or to flee to avoid prosecution, testifying, or production of records.

(h) Jurisdiction of district court; etc. -

(1) Jurisdiction. - The United States district court for the district within which the person to be summoned resides or is found shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine any proceedings brought under subsection (b)(2), (f), or (g). (2) Secretary may give summoned party certificate. - The Secretary may issue a certificate to the summoned party that the period prescribed for beginning a proceeding to quash a summons has expired and that no such proceeding began within such period, or that the taxpayer consents to the examination.

(3) Protection for summoned party who discloses. - Any summoned party, or agent or employee thereof, making a disclosure of records or testimony pursuant to this section in good faith reliance on the certificate of the Secretary or an order of a court requiring production of records or the giving of such testimony shall not be liable to any customer or other person for such disclosure.
